THE INDEPENDENT DIVISIONS

THE DIVISION OF EXTRAMURAL COURSES

CORNELL UNIVERSITY offers credit courses through its Division of Extramural Courses for persons who are unable to devote full time as students in any one of the schools or colleges of the University. Persons served in this manner are nonresident in the usual sense applied to the full-time student, are employed in the professions, in industry, in business, in public service, or otherwise, and for such reasons are unable to undertake full-time resident registration.

Courses are made available to students in off-campus centers and in regularly scheduled on-campus classes. In the first instance, the course is taught in an off-campus center located to accommodate students in sufficient number to warrant the offering. Registration for on-campus courses is available to students who commute to the campus.

Extramural students may register for any course in the University for which they have adequate preparation and for which they have the instructor's permission to enroll. The maximum registration permitted for a student in any term is two courses totaling not more than seven credit hours.

Requests for additional information should be addressed to the Director of the Division of Extramural Courses, Stone Hall, Cornell University.

THE DIVISION OF UNCLASSIFIED STUDENTS

The Division of Unclassified Students is designed to assist the potentially able student whose basic interests and aptitudes lie outside the course in which he originally enrolled. Any student who has been in residence as a candidate for a degree in any of the colleges or schools of the University may apply for admission.

The Division accepts applications for either semester. The student who feels that he is misplaced or is uncertain of his objective should consult the Director as early as possible in his college career. After the sophomore year it is generally very difficult to effect a transfer.

Application should be made at the Office of the Director in Day Hall. In addition, the student must notify the Registrar of his desire to transfer. The Administrative Committee prefers that applications be filed at least three or four weeks before the opening of either semester. At mid-year, the student who makes application after he has been dropped is not in a position to make a strong case for himself. Applications for a given term cannot be accepted after instruction has commenced.

Each student admitted to the Division is assigned a faculty adviser who will normally but not necessarily be a member of the Administrative Committee of the Division. As far as possible, the adviser will be a member of the faculty of the school or college in which the student hopes to register. An unclassified student may, with the approval of his adviser, elect courses for which he is qualified in any division of the University, subject, however, to the usual limitations on enrollment.

A student registered in the Division may apply for admission to any college or school of the University. In considering his application, the admissions committee of the school or college to which he applies will consult with the Director of the Division and the student's adviser and will take into consideration their recommendations and the quality of the work which the student has done during his registration in the Division. If at the end of two terms, he has not been accepted as a candidate for a degree in a school or college of the University, he may not be permitted to reregister in the Division except by special action of the Administrative Committee.

The Administrative Committee has the same authority to admit students, drop them, place them on probation, or remove them from probation that is exercised by a special faculty with respect to the students of its college. Students in the Division are regular students in the University; if in good standing they may participate, like any other students, in extracurricular activities.

THE INDEPENDENT DEPARTMENTS

THE FOLLOWING information concerns the courses of instruction offered by the Departments of Military Science and Tactics, Air Science, Naval Science, Physical Education, and Clinical and Preventive Medicine. These departments are similar in that they serve the entire University and are not divisions of any school or college.

CREDITS... In the course descriptions that follow, the academic credit indicated will be recorded by the University Registrar for the successful completion of each course. Whether or not credit thus recorded will be counted by a college or school in satisfaction of its requirements for a particular degree is determined, however, by the faculty of the school or college concerned. For this information, the student should consult the Announcement of the academic division in which he is enrolled.*

UNIVERSITY FACULTY REQUIREMENTS

The University faculty has established certain requirements for a baccalaureate degree in addition to those prescribed by the faculty of the school or college which administers the degree. These requirements are administered by the Committee on Requirements for Graduation. Any student who wishes to consult the Committee concerning his status should first consult the member of the Committee who represents the school or college in which he is enrolled. The Committee consists of the following:

Dean C. A. Hanson (University Faculty), Chairman
Professor J. O. Mahoney (College of Architecture)
Director A. W. Gibson (College of Agriculture)
Professor James Campbell (School of Industrial and Labor Relations)
Professor H. J. Loberg (College of Engineering)
Dean H. B. Meek (School of Hotel Administration)
Professor Peter Olafson (Veterinary College)
Assistant Dean R. L. Perry (College of Arts and Sciences)
Director B. L. Rideout (Division of Unclassified Students)
Professor Esther Stocks (College of Home Economics)

*An enrolled student may obtain the Announcement of any academic division by inquiring at the administrative office of his own division; a prospective student should write to the Announcements Office, Edmund Ezra Day Hall. Copies of the Announcement of Independent Divisions and Departments may be obtained at the Visitor Information Center, Day Hall.

THE REQUIREMENT IN PHYSICAL EDUCATION... The University faculty has established the following requirements in physical education for all students:

1. All undergraduate students must complete four terms of work, three hours a week, in physical education.

2. The requirement in physical education is a requirement of the first four terms, and postponements are to be allowed only by consent of the University Faculty Committee on Requirements for Graduation.

3. Exemptions from the requirement may be made by the Committee on Requirements for Graduation when recommended by the Medical Office or by the Department of Physical Education, or because of unusual conditions of age, residence, or outside responsibilities. An exemption recommended by the Department of Physical Education shall be given only to students who meet standards of physical condition established by the Department of Physical Education and approved by the Committee on Requirements for Graduation. Students who have been discharged from the armed forces may be exempted.

4. For students entering with advanced standing, the number of terms of physical education required is to be reduced by the number of terms which the student has satisfactorily completed (not necessarily including physical education) in a college of recognized standing.

5. Responsibility for the interpretation of the requirement and for its application in individual cases is placed upon the Committee on Requirements for Graduation.

The University requirement in physical education may be satisfied by four terms of work in the Department of Physical Education. For this purpose Physical Education 1, 2, 3, and 4 are available to men and Physical Education 52, 53, and 54 to women.

THE REQUIREMENT IN MILITARY TRAINING... The University faculty has established the following requirement in military training for male students.

1. All undergraduate men students must complete four terms of work, three hours a week, in military training.

2. The requirement in military training is a requirement of the first four terms, and postponements are to be allowed only with the consent of the University Faculty Committee on Requirements for Graduation.

3. Students who are unable to meet the minimum physical standards established by the armed forces for admission to the basic courses in military training or who are ineligible for such courses under other regulations of the armed forces shall be exempt. In the discretion of the Committee on Requirements for Graduation, exemptions from the requirements may be granted to aliens and conscientious objectors. It is recognized, moreover, that some other conditions, such as those of age, residence, or unusual outside responsibilities, may be accepted by the Committee as bases for exemption.

4. The requirement may be offset by work taken in military science in institutions of recognized collegiate standing and in military schools approved in this regard by the Department of the Army or the Department of the Air Force.

5. For students entering with advanced standing, the number of terms of military training required is to be reduced by the number of terms which the student has satisfactorily completed (not necessarily including military service) in a college of recognized standing.

6. Responsibility for the interpretation of the requirement and for its application in individual cases is placed upon the Committee on Requirements for Graduation.

7. Students who have been enrolled in the armed services may be exempted from the requirement in military training by virtue of such service.

8. A special student admitted for a period of less than two years is exempted from the requirement in military training during that period.

9. Any student who is enrolled in a regularly constituted reserve component of the armed forces and who is pursuing a training program approved by the Committee on Requirements for Graduation may be allowed to postpone the satisfaction of the military training requirement while he is so enrolled, and any student who satisfactorily completes twelve months in such a program shall have thereby satisfied two terms of the University military training requirement.

10. Any student who has satisfactorily completed four terms of the NROTC Program will have satisfied the University requirement in military training, and any student registered in the NROTC Program may postpone the military training requirement for the term in which he is so registered.

11. Any student registered in the Big Red Band may postpone the military training requirement for the term in which he is so registered, and any student who satisfactorily completes a term of work in the Big Red Band shall be deemed to have satisfied one term of the University military training requirement.

The University faculty requirement in military training may be satisfied by successful completion of work taken in any one of three departments: the Department of Military Science and Tactics, the Department of Air Science, or the Department of Naval Science. Each department offers a four-year course, the first two years of which satisfy the University requirement. An entering student will be assigned to one of these divisions prior to his registration in the University. This assignment will be made on the basis of his personal choice subject to quota limitations.

Specifically, the requirement may be satisfied:

(a) by four terms of work in the Department of Military Science and Tactics (Military Science 11, 12, 21, and 22); or

(b) by four terms of work in the Department of Air Science (Air Science IA, IB, IIA, IIB); or

(c) by four terms of academic work (Naval Science 101, 102, 201, and 202) in the Department of Naval Science. (According to their respective contractual agreements with the Navy, Regular and Contract NROTC students are committed to continue in the NROTC program for four years.)

STUDENT'S RESPONSIBILITY FOR FULFILLMENT OF CONTRACTS IN ROTC PROGRAM

The Committee on Student Conduct will examine cases in which students are disenrolled from the Army, Navy, or Air Force Training Programs for breaking their contracts or for other instances of apparent bad faith. In clear instances of deliberate intent to avoid obligation to the armed services after the student has received substantial benefits, it is the committee's normal policy to require the student's withdrawal from the University, with suspension and parole available as less stringent penalties.

The committee has also requested the admissions officers at Cornell to refrain from admitting any candidate who has been dropped by another institution for attempting to avoid his obligations to a service.

MILITARY SCIENCE AND TACTICS

THE objective of the four-year course of instruction presented by the Department of Military Science and Tactics is to produce junior officers who by their education, training, and inherent qualities are suitable for continued development as officers in the United States Army. Instruction will cover military fundamentals common to all branches of the service. The aim is to provide a basic military education and, in conjunction with other college disciplines, to develop individual character and attributes essential to an officer.

The first two years of this course, Basic ROTC, are part of the University requirements for a baccalaureate degree unless the student satisfies this requirement by other means. Entering students who have had ROTC training in secondary or military schools are requested to bring DA Form 131 (Student's Record—ROTC) for presentation to the Military Department at the time of registration. The third and fourth years, Advanced ROTC, are elective and qualify a student for appointment as Second Lieutenant in the U. S. Army Reserve or the Regular Army.

All students will take the general military science curriculum. Basic Course students take one hour of school of the soldier and exercise of command and two hours of classroom work per week. NAVAL SCIENCE

THE Department of Naval Science offers a four-year course in Naval and Marine Corps subjects which can be integrated into almost any major field of academic study with the exception of the following courses: premedical, medical, predental, preveterinary, veterinary medicine, music, or art. The student, upon graduation and meeting the physical requirements, will be commissioned as an Ensign, U.S. Navy; Ensign, U.S. Naval Reserve; Second Lieutenant, U.S. Marine Corps; or Second Lieutenant, U.S. Marine Corps Reserve. The course requires attendance at three one-hour classes and one two-hour laboratory session each week and participation in at least one summer cruise, of about six weeks' duration. The student is required to accept a commission and report for a period of obligated active service immediately on attainment of his first baccalaureate degree. Upon acceptance in the course, he is placed in a draft-deferred status until graduation.

In order to register for Naval Science, the student must enroll in the Naval ROTC Unit (Department of Naval Science) either as a Regular NROTC student or as a Contract NROTC student. In either case, he must be a male citizen of the United States; he must have reached his seventeenth and not have passed his twenty-first birthday on July 1 of the entering year. If he matriculates in a major field of study requiring five years for a first baccalaureate degree, he must not have passed his twentieth birthday on July 1 of the entering year, and he will be placed in a leave status with respect to the Department of Naval Science (deferment continues) during one of the five years. He must be unmarried, never have been married, and agree to remain unmarried until commissioned. He must pass the same physical examination given for entrance into the U.S. Naval Academy.

REGULAR NROTC STUDENTS are selected annually by State Selection Committees on the basis of a nationwide competitive examination. They are ordered to Cornell University by the Department of the Navy. They are enrolled as Midshipmen, U.S. Naval Reserve, upon matriculating, and they receive free tuition, books, fees, and uniforms, and retainer pay at the rate of $50 a month while pursuing the four-year course. They are required to participate in three summer cruises of six to eight weeks' duration. On graduation, they are commissioned Ensign, U.S. Navy, or Second Lieutenant, U.S. Marine Corps, and are required to serve on active duty up to four years. During their third year of active duty, they may apply for retention in the Regular Navy or Marine Corps. If selected, they will continue in the service as career officers. Otherwise, they will be placed on inactive duty in the Reserve Component until their commissioned service (active and inactive) totals six years.

CONTRACT NROTC STUDENTS are selected on the campus by the Professor of Naval Science, Cornell University, during Freshman Orientation, and they are enrolled as civilians by executing a contract with the Navy upon matriculating. They receive free Naval Science textbooks and uniforms for four years, and a subsistence allowance of about $27 per month during their last two years. They are required to participate in one summer cruise of about six weeks' duration immediately following their third year of Naval Science. Upon graduation, they are commissioned Ensigns, U.S. Naval Reserve, or Second Lieutenants, U.S. Marine Corps Reserve, and may be required to serve on active duty up to two years. They are obligated to serve a total of six years (active and inactive) as commissioned officers. Entering freshmen who desire to enroll as Contract NROTC students must apply at the Naval ROTC unit (Department of Naval Science) in Barton Hall September 18-20, 1958. The number of students who can be accepted is limited by quota set by the Department of the Navy.

For further information write to the Professor of Naval Science, Naval ROTC Unit, Cornell University, Ithaca.
